

Music

Music is a universal art that is profoundly rewarding to study and perform. The program gives students a knowledge of different styles of music. Over the course of the year, students will study and perform major Classical works with an orchestra, traditional Christmas music, and will launch a full scale theatrical production in the spring. Students have the opportunity to take classes in Music Theory, Music History and Musical Theater as well as perform in the pep band and take applied lessons.

DEGREES OFFERED

- Choral Music Minor

PROGRAM INFORMATION

In addition to the choral performance opportunities here at Newman, classroom options include:

Music Theory, where students learn the basics of music notation as well as refine aural skills.

Heritage of Western Music is an exploratory course into the history of western music.

Musical Theater is an upper division class that explores the history of American Musical Theater and how a production comes together. Students learn to critique using Aristotle's elements of drama.

Applied lessons are available in voice, piano, organ, brass, guitar, woodwinds and strings. Students are given private instruction in their instrument with a highly qualified instructor.

Performing Groups

The Newman Choral

- The large ensemble, open to anyone on campus that would like to sing and can match pitch
- Students perform at four major concerts/events:
 - Fall
 - Christmas
 - Theatrical show in the spring
 - Commencement

The Newman Troubadours

The select, auditioned ensemble that is featured in all the major concerts as well as a host of events on and off campus, including:

- Convocations
- Campus events
- A variety of venues statewide

Scholarships

Music scholarships are available to students interested in pursuing a music minor and singing in choral groups. Instrumental scholarships are available for pep band members. These scholarships can make Newman University a very affordable option for college education. For more information, please contact:

PROMINENT CAREERS

Newman University offers a Minor in Music to compliment a wide range of majors in the institution.

EXPERT, ACCESSIBLE FACULTY

The Music program consists of a group of carefully selected scholarly and professional practitioners who creatively introduce students to emerging theory and current best practices.

Newman Graduates regularly cite close collaboration with talented, dedicated faculty as one of their most meaningful experiences at Newman.

Newman faculty members are more than just leaders in their field. They take an active and personal role in students' studies and progress, forming strong relationships with students through coursework, special projects and informal out of class discussions.

ACCREDITATION

Newman University is accredited by The Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, www.ncahigherlearningcommission.org.

FINANCIAL AID

With many scholarships, grants, work-study and company tuition assistance programs available, the cost of a degree from Newman University is comparable to that of state universities.
