The sports medicine minor is designed to meet growing interest in a program of study that integrates exercise and health sciences with the practical aspects of human performance. By completing this program, students have an opportunity to acquire knowledge as they learn about anatomy, human movement, nutrition and sports injuries.

DEGREES OFFERED

- Minor in Sports Medicine

PROGRAM INFORMATION

The delivery method of course materials is in a traditional classroom setting. Students will gain theoretical knowledge in the classroom and hands-on experience through out-of-the-classroom internship opportunities such as serving as an assistant trainer for Newman University.

PROMINENT CAREERS

The Sports Medicine Minor at Newman University is intended for students who are interested in academic disciplines including physical education, pre-physical therapy, coaching, pre-chiropractic, nutrition, nursing, pre-medicine, pre-occupational therapy, or pre-athletic training, as well as those interested in graduate education. This program will provide interested students with the academic background and the opportunity to develop knowledge and skills in sports medicine.

EXPERT, ACCESSIBLE FACULTY

The Sports Medicine program consists of a group of carefully selected scholarly and professional practitioners who creatively introduce students to emerging theory and current best practices.

Newman Graduates regularly cite close collaboration with talented, dedicated faculty as one of their most meaningful experiences at Newman.

Newman faculty members are more than just leaders in their field. They take an active and personal role in students' studies and progress, forming strong relationships with students through coursework, special projects and informal out of class discussions.

ACCREDITATION

Newman University is accredited by The Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, www.ncahigherlearningcommission.org.

FINANCIAL AID

With many scholarships, grants, work-study and company tuition assistance programs available, the cost of a degree from Newman University is comparable to that of state universities.
